

ACGC District Goals 2015/2016

PK-3rd Grade

ACGC will go from having 69% of their current 4-year olds meeting target in spring of 2015 to 74% of our current 4-year olds meeting target in spring of 2016 according to FAST benchmark testing.

ACGC will go from having 75% of students in 3rd grade meeting proficiency to 79.5% of students (enrolled on October 1st) in 3rd grade meeting proficiency according to 2016 MCA-III test data.

Professional Development

After PD training is complete, ACGC will go from having 50% of certified staff involved in PLCs to having 100% of certified staff involved in PLCs by January 2016.

After PD training is complete, ACGC School District will go from 65.4% of students being proficient on all reading accountability tests to 72.4% and will go from 67.5% of students being proficient on all math accountability tests to 71.4% of students being proficient accountability tests according to 2016 state data.

Given:
Policy
Law
Legislation
Finance
Communication

Achievement Gap Closure

ACGC school district will continue to decrease the achievement gaps identified in special education by decreasing the special education reading gap from 38.8% to 33.8% and decreasing the special education math gap from 40.8% to 35.8% according to 2016 data.

College and Career Readiness

ACGC will go from 50% of students being college and career ready in 2014/2015 by meeting with every student and family in grades 9-12 to 59% of student's grades 9-12 being college and career ready by meeting with every student and family by May 30, 2016 as documented by the school success coordinator.

In the ACGC Public Schools we believe:

- School promotes a supportive educational environment where every person has dignity and worth.
- School will provide experiences which allow the student to realize his/her fullest potential.
- Learning is a life-long skill.
- Students, staff, parents and community members working together are our most important strength in making our school district successful.
- Every student should be prepared to be a productive citizen in a global society because our children are our future.